BOONNE TERRE FOUND THE SAME?

The Answer Is Found in the Straightforward Statement of a Boone Terre Resident.

We have been reading week after week in the local press of Potosi citizens who have been rid of distressing kidney and bladder troubles by Doan's Kidney Pills, and we have often wondered whether the same high opinion of this medicine is to be found in our neighboring towns. This frank and earnest statement by a well-known and respected resident of Boone Terre will set this doubt at rest.

Mrs. Catharine Boehle, 45 Jackson St., Boone Terre, Mo., says: "For a long time I have been a user of Doan's Kidney Pills and have always received beneficial results. Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to regulate the action of my kidneys and remove pain from the small of my back."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills, the kind that Mrs. Boehle had, Foster-McBee Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

'BOOZE' GOOD ENGLISH WORD

Cleveland Professor Says It Has Pedigree Longer Than Most Kings.

Cleveland—"Booze" has had its ancient and honorable ancestry in the English language uncovered here by Prof. William H. Hulme of Western Reserve university. Labeled for generations as an etymological outlaw, and branded as such with quotation marks, Professor Hulme finds "booze" has a pedigree longer than that of most kings. Its earliest spelling, according to Professor Hulme was "house" and finally "booze."

"Both as a noun and verb, the word," Professor Hulme said, "written 'house' in middle English literature as far back as 1300, had the meaning 'to drink in excess.' About 1600 the word lost the honorable character it had and became a slang word. 'Boozing' is recorded as early as 1520, and 'boozed' was used in 1611."

A Gasoline Fire.

Last Sunday night John W. Swift, the transfer man, who was hung up out on the road somewhere with a stalled truck, called up one of his men to bring out another truck and pull him in. As the tank of the relief truck required filling first, the gas was drawn from a 60-gallon storage tank, located on Swift's property in the east part of town, by a lad named Johnny Minka, who was helping the driver, when the gas caught fire, and there was a fine blaze immediate. The boy's clothing caught fire, but he was rolled in the grass and the flames extinguished before they did him any harm. Johnny asserted that the gas caught fire from a lightening-bug falling into the can he was filling, but the driver says the boy had a lighted lantern close to the can to see how full it was. The storage tank was about full at the time, but gasoline burned away as it ran from the faucet and there was no explosion. About 20 gallons of lubricating oil was also consumed. As this happened at 11 o'clock, it made a fine bonfire to the departing Fourth of July.

To the Republicans of Washington County.

I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for the office of Judge of the St. Louis County of Appeals. The district includes twenty three counties and the City of St. Louis. It is impossible for me to take the time from my present office to make a thorough canvass of the district before the August primary.

I take this means of appealing to you in my behalf and to solicit your vote and influence.

I was born and raised at Cape Girardeau, Missouri, where I was City Attorney and Prosecuting Attorney. For seven years I was First Assistant United States Attorney for the Eastern Judicial District of Missouri, and for the past seven years I have been City Counselor of St. Louis. I think my experience, both in the country and in the city, and in the Federal and State courts, well qualifies me for the office I am seeking.

I beg of you to give my candidacy such favorable consideration as you may deem it merits.

Yours respectfully,
CHAS. H. DAUES
